Later you can plant it outdoors where it will contribute beauty and good cheer for many years to come. A few dollars invested in a small tree now will in a few years result in a large tree—almost priceless in value.

BERLIN ON EDGE OF BANKRUPTCY

Socialists and Reds Seek Loan on Industry

Schacht Refuses to Back Radical Schemes

Conservative Plan Offered to Raise Money

BERLIN, Dec. 16. (Exclusive)—The German capital, which the Socialists and Communists are slowly trying to turn into a vast, public-owned enterprise, is on the verge of bankruptcy.

The American firm of Dillon, Read & Co. agreed to a loan of $15,000,000, using some of Berlin's plants as security, but Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, president of the Reichsbank, and the commission controlling German loans abroad, refused to endorse the loan, which Germany's financial chief feels would only encourage the Red majority of Berlin's City Fathers, to indulge in new socialization experiments.

To carry out their dream of public ownership of all industry and of private property, Berlin's officials acquired control of 354 private enterprises ranging from power plants, gas works, street cars, subway and grand opera to a girls' academy, gardens, farms, forests, a large scale real estate concern and a bank and suit enterprise.

Twenty-six of these town companies are $100,000 concerns. To enable them to compete with private enterprises the City Fathers equipped them with lavish privileges and freed them from the obligation to pay taxes, with a few exceptions.

German business men protested violently against the unfair competition of city-owned plants, since they are being paralyzed by the heavy taxation imposed on them. Dr. Schacht, siding with the German business men, refused to allow Berlin to take up the loan, but vetoed out a plan through which Berlin will be able to bring its finances back to a sound footing if it cuts out the fancy expenses and increases the price of gas, electricity and carfare.

MEXICO'S FIRST FAMILY PLAN REUNION

Five Children Will Join Parents in Baltimore

President-elect Ortiz Rubio, his wife and three of their children, Eugene, Orfelia and Pascual, Jr.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 16. (Exclusive)—While Senor Pascual Ortiz Rubio, President-elect of Mexico, and Senora Ortiz Rubio are patients at Johns Hopkins Hospital, three other members of the family, Orfelia, Eugene and Pascual, Jr., will marvel at the sights of Baltimore and learn of its early history.

President-elect Ortiz Rubio and his wife entered the hospital last night for physical examinations and rest. The three children, under the care of a governess, are staying at the Hotel Belvedere. City officials, it is understood, today formulated plans for the entertainment of the three youngsters, while the parents are in the hospital.

Senor and Senora Ortiz Rubio expected to leave Johns Hopkins shortly before Christmas, when they will be joined by their two other sons who are students at Gettysburg Academy, Gettysburg, Pa. The day following Christmas, Ortiz Rubio is scheduled to be the guest of President Hoover at the White House.

GERM-ISOLATION REPORT FAYED

Medical Journal Criticizes "Flu" Announcement

Discovery Made by Dr. Falk, Chicago University

Letter Says Detailed Proof Being Printed

CHICAGO, Dec. 16. (Exclusive)—Declaring the furor caused by Dr. Isidore S. Falk's announcement of the isolation of the influenza germ to be inexcusable, the Journal of the American Medical Association, published here, in an editorial of the current issue, denounces the announcement as "unwarranted."

Dr. Falk made announcement of his discovery Friday. The editorial in the medical journal, which is edited by Dr. Morris Fishbein, follows:

"With little, if any, apparent warrant, it is again announced for at least the tenth time in five years that the positive organism of influenza has been discovered and that it is hoped to prepare vaccine here is thus far little or no evidence in scientific medical literature or even in spoken addresses to indicate that I. S. Falk, Ph.D., and his associates, have progressed any further toward the solution of this problem than have workers in other parts of the world, now or in the past."

FIERY VESSEL LEFT TO FATE

Steamer Skagway Given Up on Washington Coast

Ship Total Loss at Entrance to Juan de Fuca Strait

Captain Has to Be Taken Off by Coast Guardsmen

SEATTLE, Dec. 16. (AP)—The steamer Skagway, which caught fire and went ashore two miles south of Cape Flattery at the entrance to the Strait of Juan de Fuca, was abandoned as a total loss this afternoon.

Capt. E. Strandquist, who refused to take to lifeboats with the remainder of the crew, was removed by the Coast Guard and taken aboard the cutter Snohomish.

The twenty-six members of the crew were taken to the Coast Guard station at Neah Bay.

The Snohomish reported that the Skagway is ashore, headed south-east, about a half mile south of Fuca's Pillar.

The Skagway was bound for Seattle from Los Angeles and San Francisco. It had a cargo of gasoline, alcohol and oil.

The Skagway is owned by C. H. Walker, Inc., Los Angeles lumber freighting company. It was chartered to the McCormick Steamship Company, the head offices of which are in San Francisco.

FEDERAL RADIO BOARD LIVES ON

Both Houses Adopt Bills Assuring Its Existence

House's Approval Taken as Forthcoming

All Communication Devices May Be Regulated

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16. (KANA)—The first time in its short and stormy career, the Federal Radio Commission has taken on a degree of stability. Both houses of Congress today passed bills extending its life indefinitely. That President Hoover will sign the extension measure is regarded as a matter of course in view of his recommendation to Congress regarding radio.

With the commission has yet to come a bill which would extend the salaries of its members until January 1, when its treasury will have been depleted. It has been hoped that the extension of its life would give it time to complete its work.

As a result of the Senate's action, the commission's life again, this time until May 1, 1934, was extended by a majority vote. As passed by the Senate, the bill of Representative Charles McNary, of Oregon, would continue the commission as it is, but the new extension is only for a year-by-year basis, and the new law extends it only until other legislation is enacted.

As effort in the Senate to limit the commission's life again, this time until May 1, 1934, was defeated by a majority vote. As passed by the Senate, the bill of Representative Charles McNary, of Oregon, would continue the commission as it is, but the new extension is only for a year-by-year basis, and the new law extends it only until other legislation is enacted.

THE MOST USEFUL GIFT

-a brief word to husbands

IF YOU but had the magic power, your Christmas gift this year to your family would be simply—health and happiness. That would be the greatest gift of all.

To someone near and dear you can bring improved health with a General Electric Refrigerator.

The aim of perfect refrigeration is to keep food always at a temperature below 50 degrees, otherwise bacteria thrive—food which looks palatable becomes dangerous—health suffers. The General Electric Refrigerator keeps food constantly at a temperature well below 50 degrees.

The mechanism of the General Electric Refrigerator is remarkably simple and efficient. It is entirely enclosed in an hermetically sealed steel casing... mounted on top of the cabinet, thus allowing maximum food storage space inside. Each General Electric Refrigerator has an accessible freezing regulator which makes it possible to speed up the freezing of a plentiful supply of ice cubes or special desserts whenever desirable. The all-steel cabinet is sturdy as a safe, warp-proof and thoroughly sanitary.

And General Electric, as any friend who owns one will tell you, is quiet, trouble-free and guaranteed for service. It contains every worthwhile improvement known to the art of refrigeration.

There are now more than 350,000 users and not one has spent a dollar for service or repairs.

$10.29 NEW PAYMENT PLAN

Startling new terms now make it wasteful not to enjoy the conveniences and economies of a General Electric Refrigerator. $10.29 down and $10.29 a month pay for All-Steel Model G-40—less than 34c a day. No need to disturb savings when little economies here and there enable your family budget to absorb the cost. All other models also sold on desirable terms. See this ideal Christmas gift today at your nearest store.

ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR

DOWN in her heart every modern housewife longs for a gleaming electric refrigerator! It saves so many steps—saves so many dollars in wasted, spoiled foods—adds so much to the appearance of her kitchen—means so much in the preparation of modern, attractive desserts. And, most important of all, protects the health of every member of the family by keeping foods pure and safe! Southern California's mild winters, with many warm days, demand that milk and other perishables be kept constantly at consistently low temperatures!

But many thrifty women hesitate to ask for such a seemingly expensive gift, not knowing that their City-Owned Electric System has put electric refrigeration within the reach of every salaried person. In fact, the low electric rates ($1.50 or less per month for electric current) make it extravagant and wasteful NOT to own one.

Drop in to the Appliance Display Room at 207 South Broadway. See all makes of electric refrigerators. An unbiased attendant will explain the features of each. Nothing is for sale. Make your decision leisurely and calmly. Then go to any dealer who will gladly deliver the make you prefer on Christmas morning for a small down payment, (in some instances as low as $25), the balance arranged in extended payments.

Other ELECTRICAL Gifts, Too! The Display Room solves gift problems for hurried husbands, for here are gifts for every feminine member of the family. Nothing for sale. Just a place to get ideas.

STARLING, EUROPE'S PEST, SPREADING IN AMERICA

CHICAGO, Dec. 16. (AP)—Europe's pest, the starling, is spreading in America. The bird, which was introduced from Europe in 1871, is now found in large numbers in the eastern seaboard and is now nearly everywhere in the East and South. It is a voracious feeder and is a pest to farmers and fruit growers. It is also a pest to the ornamental bird industry.

Mr. Bailey described the starling as resembling the bluebird in size, but more robust, hardy, noisy and prolific. The bird thrives in any place, said Mr. Bailey—in holes in trees and crevices of buildings, always displacing the previous feathered occupants, if any. Like the English sparrow, the starling was introduced at the eastern seaboard and now nearly everywhere in the East and South reports large numbers of the birds. They fly from field to field in large flocks and can lay waste to acres in a day, Mr. Bailey said. Always the migration has been steadily westward. They have one redeeming quality—they devour certain ravaging insects.

Reach His Home

LAREDO (Tex.) Dec. 16. (AP)—Desiring to reach his home in Mexico as soon as possible, Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles passed through Laredo early tonight aboard a special train, which did not stop here. The general's arrival had been announced for early tomorrow, and Laredo citizens gave him a cordial welcome. Members of the Mexican consulate and other officials, however, learned of the change in plans and were at the railway station tonight to greet the former President. They were disappointed when the train sped across the Rio Grande to Nuevo Laredo without stopping. The delegation then hurried to the Mexican city where they were greeted by Gen. Calles, Mexican Ambassador Manuel Tellez and other members of the party. The train remained in Nuevo Laredo but a short time, the general having expressed a desire to reach his home in Mexico as soon as possible. John A. Vail, District Attorney of Webb county, Texas, who had threatened to arrest Calles on a conspiracy charge he had filed against him in connection with the slaying of two Mexican army officers here in 1922, when informed at his office that the general had passed through Laredo without stopping merely replied that he "knew."

Two United States Marine officers and eight privates left the train at Nuevo Laredo.

CONSULATE AT LAREDO

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 16. (AP)—The Mexican Foreign Office announced tonight that effective the 17th inst. the Mexican Consulate at Laredo, Tex., would be closed. The Department of Interior announced simultaneously that permission granted some time ago to the Laredo Chamber of Commerce to issue tourist cards for entry into Mexico would be rescinded. Both actions were considered here as retaliation for the attitude of John Vail, District Attorney at Laredo, toward Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles, whom he has charged in a murder warrant with complicity in the death of a Mexican at Laredo several years ago.

Sargon Proved Surprise of His Life, He States

"I have just finished my seventh book, of Sargon, and I can't remember when I've felt better than I do now," recently stated Wm. McCull, well-known furniture maker at 1844 Alhambra St., Los Angeles.

WM. McCULL

"My stomach was in such bad condition from indigestion that I was almost afraid to eat anything because of the gases and stomach pains that I knew would follow. My liver must have been in bad shape, for I suffered a lot with dizziness and headaches, and was nearly always taking some kind of medicine, and during the day was listless and faded out. I'd be tired when I finished my day's work, I could hardly put one foot before the other on the way home, and I never did feel strong and well at any time.

"I heard so many people praising Sargon that I decided to try it, and when I had finished the first bottle I knew it was the very medicine I had needed all the time. I could feel it strengthening my whole system. I never was more satisfied in my life than when I began to feel my food again and know that I could eat anything in the world I wanted without a trace of indigestion. As soon as I started to eat plenty of nourishing food again, I commenced to gain weight, and now I have already gained five pounds and am still gaining. I have never seen such medicine for building up a run-down system. My nerves are as strong as steel, I sleep fine and get up and off to work with all the strength and energy any man needs.

"Sargon Pills straightened out my liver and absolutely ended my indigestion. My dizziness and headaches are over and my only regret is that I didn't start this wonderful Sargon treatment a long time before I did. I have a lot of friends who are praising the treatment, too, but none of them praise it more highly than I do."

Sargon may be obtained at all Drug Stores.—(Advertisement.)

ROCKEFELLER, SR., SHOWS FULL CONFIDENCE IN SON

Business Cares Gradually Shifted as Offspring Evidences His Fitness for Trust

This is the tenth chapter of The Life of John D. Rockefeller. Others will follow daily.

By JOHN K. WINKLER

There was little curiosity about him at first. He seldom broke into print. When John D. had let it be known in Wall Street that he was retiring from active business, everyone grinned. Public curiosity was aroused. It was to be plucked to a still greater extent when the son took over direction of the men's Bible class of the family church, the Fifth Avenue Baptist, and voluntarily stepped out into the limelight—as a believer in work, duty and godliness.

Junior succeeded the scholarly Charles Evans Hughes as leader of the Bible class. The event created a sensation. Curiousity seekers dropped in to have a look at the richest young man in the world teaching Sunday-school. Just as they went to St. George's to see Dr. Rainford's richest parishioner, J. Pierpont Morgan, was the place.

CLASS ROLL GROWS

Membership in the class tripled almost overnight. Men on the fringes of the stock market figured that here was an easy opportunity to get in right. The pale, long-haired young man soon made it evident that he was conducting a class for the study of the Scriptures, not an institution for the dissemination of Wall-street tips or an employment bureau for the Standard Oil Company.

Rockefeller soon weeded out the takers and the class prospered. "Many misguided persons," he'd say solemnly, "think the true test of friendship is whether the friend will lend money. Don't you believe it. If you have any friendship for people, don't you spoil it by trying to borrow money from them."

"NEEDLE'S EYE"

In dealing with difficult problems of morality Rockefeller explained that the Savior did not mean literally that it would be easier for a camel to crawl through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God "because conditions now are different." Similarly, "Lay up for yourselves treasures upon earth" did not necessarily refer to money. "A man may possess great wealth on earth," explained the oil prince, "and at the same time build up treasures in heaven. Wealth is not necessarily an impediment to a man's advancement to the Beyond. The growth of a large business is merely the survival of the fittest. It does the greatest good to the greatest number, although perhaps, at the expense of the few. The American Beauty rose can produce only by sacrificing the early buds which grow up around it. So the growth of big business is merely the working out of a law of God and of nature."

FATHER PLEASED

John D. Sr. happened to hear this epochal preaching. He listened to his 25-year-old progeny with relish and expressed his satisfaction thus: "I would rather see my son doing this work than see him a monarch on his throne."

Along about 1910, the junior Rockefeller's keen business instinct told him that Protestantism, to survive, must drop many of its outworn interdenominational distinctions. So he read the "new" theology prodigiously and subjected himself to the successive liberalizing influences of President William H. P. Frazer of Brown University, the late Dr. Cornelius Woodfin and Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick, most militant of the modernists. He emerged a most ardent religious progressive and advocate of the Inter-Church Movement. Further he converted his father, long a disciple of tradition.

VIEWPOINTS DIFFER

In his point of view on industrial relations, also, John D. Jr., has demonstrated ability to shift deftly with the times. John D. believed in governing from the top and his wealth on an idea of industrial autocracy. John D. Jr. is an industrial democrat.

He is strong for so-called "republic of labor"—which professes to provide unselfish and equal representation of capital, management and labor on company arbitration boards, etc. Within certain limits he even gives verbal support to unionism. Human rights above dividends has been his cry since 1915.

In 1913 and 1914, it will be recalled, there were violent labor disturbances and much bloodshed in Colorado on the property of the Rockefeller-controlled Colorado Fuel and Iron Company. Sympathetic to the liberal mass meetings were held all over the country. Bitterness again flared against the "black" Rockefeller and their "red" millions. In May, 1914, radicals with mourning bands on their arms picketed 28 Broadway and the town houses of the Rockefellers. One excitable young woman with a loaded revolver was ejected from the junior Rockefeller's office.

MOTHER JONES'S ATTACK

Picturesque old Mother Jones became the Joan of Arc of the coal fields. She stumped the country denouncing the Rockefellers. Early in 1915, President Wilson's Industrial Relations Commission took up the case. Frank P. Walsh was chairman of the commission. In those days Walsh fairly exuded bromine in the presence of a captain of industry. The lecture Walsh summoned John D. Jr., to the witness stand and roared at him for three days. Pale and tense, the cool, the young oil prince parried the onslaught by frankly admitting ignorance of conditions in Colorado. "But," Mr. Chairman, he said, "at the first opportunity I shall go to Colorado and investigate for myself. If I find anything I will change them."

BELIEVED IN HIM

The afternoon of his last appearance on the stand, Mother Jones marched into Rockefeller's office and offered her hand. "Young man, I believe you mean to be fair," she told him. "I, for one, am willing to give you a chance."

Until the Colorado mix-up, John D. did not know whether Junior was just a "good" man or a "big" man. But after Junior had come

EX-BANKERS ADMIT THEIR FRAUD GUILT

Stand Mute in Flint Court

FLINT (Mich.) Dec. 16. (AP)—Nine of the fifteen former officers and employees of the Union Industrial Bank of Flint, accused of embezzlements aggregating $3,582,000, pleaded guilty in Circuit Court today. The others stood mute and their cases were set for trial.

PERSON DATA DEMANDED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16. (AP)—The Senate today called on the Attorney-General for information regarding a contract entered into between the superintendent of federal prisons and the Prison Commission of 200 federal prisoners.

HIS SON'S TENANT

Since 1915, John D. has shown increasing confidence in his son. He even has transferred legally his four residences to the latter, including the great Pocantico estate. John D. now is a tenant of his son. Of course, the son never would turn his father out of doors but, with customary Rockefeller thoroughness, the deed stipulates that John D. shall have the right to occupy all of the houses so long as he lives and also the right to lease them at his pleasure.

John D. Jr. has been a disappointment to his father in one respect only; he has never been able to learn to play a passable game of golf. "Father and the professionals have not succeeded with me," says John D. Jr. ruefully. "However, if my money holds out, I hope eventually to play a pretty good game."

DAILY EXERCISE

Daily when in town, he plays squash at the Whitehall Club and rides the electric horse in the club gymnasium on the twenty-fourth floor of the Whitehall Building. The economic necessity of a sound body was borne in upon him in his thirtieth year when a temporary nervous breakdown forced him to spend five months in Southern France.

As a matter of health insurance, two years ago he erected for his children, at Pocantico, a beautiful private playhouse and athletic field. It cost $60,000. The playhouse contains a swimming pool, kitchen and breakfast room, lounge, music room, billiard tables and a dark room. A developing chamber where the Rockefeller boys may indulge their hobby for photography. Among many outdoor features are tennis and croquet courts and a baseball diamond.

CHINA'S REVOLT NEAR COLLAPSE

Nanking Forces Gaining on All Rebel Fronts

Nationalist Army No Longer
in Defensive Role

Foreign Men-of-War Will Protect Consulates

SHANGHAI, Dec. 16. (AP)—China's Nationalist government appeared tonight to have checked at least temporarily the widespread revolt which for a few days seemed certain to cause its collapse.

Reports from quarters which a week ago were hotbeds of rebellion showed that instead of a precarious defensive position in which the Nationalists sought only to have the capital, Nanking, they again have assumed the offensive against their rebel attackers. The government forces are entering the enemy's territories and the rebels generally appear to be crumbling before the onslaught.

AREAS CONCERNED

The principal areas concerned are: First, the territory about Canton; second, the region north of Hankow; third, the section north of Pukow, where the Pukow mutineers apparently are unable further to

PRIEST KILLINGS DESCRIBED

Los Altos Seminary Head Gets Details of How Chinese Slew Three Missionaries

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 16. (AP)—Rev. James G. Keller, superior of Maryknoll Junior Seminary at Los Altos, told the Associated Press today that he has just received by mail details of the murder in China recently of three Franciscan missionaries, Bishop Hans and Fathers Bruno and Rupert.

Father Keller said the missionaries were killed in a most revolting manner, Bishop Jans being "brutally hacked to pieces. The clergymen were captured by bandits. The death of these priests, Father Keller said, brings the total number of Catholic priests killed in China maintain their revolt against the government.

About Canton the rebels are reported crushed and the Nationalists again in firm control.

North of Pukow the Nanking forces are reported to have begun a drive northward which is expected to result in the collapse of the insurgents of that area under Gen. Tang Yun-sheng.

UNSETTLED FACTORS

However, although the Nanking government's fortunes have improved greatly in recent days, many factors remain decidedly unsettled.

MANCHULI FEAR HELD BASELESS

Delayed Report of Japanese
Consul Reassuring

Russians Feed Starving and

Diplomats' Train Halted to Cover Chinese Looting

TOKIO, Dec. 16. (AP)—Optimistic reports of conditions under Russian Soviet control west of the Khingan Mountains in Manchuria reached officials here today, detracting somewhat from their uneasiness at press reports of delays to the international consular train.

Latest reports to the Nengo News Agency indicated that the train, carrying consular representatives of the United States, Japan, Great Britain, France and Germany, still was being held at Mien-tou, the little town on the Chinese Eastern Railway which marks the western front of the Manchurian stand against the Russians. Both Chinese and Russian officials are said to oppose further westward movement of the train and the consular passengers are reported as irritated by the delay and planning to push forward anyway.

AFTER INFORMATION

The expedition was started because of the lack of official reports on the status of foreigners in Western Manchuria since the Chinese retreat, shortly after the middle of November. The Japanese Foreign Office had not received any of the dispatches sent by the consul at Manchuli, and understood he had been forbidden the privilege of sending his dispatches in code.

Today, however, the consul's reports for November 26 and 27 arrived, saying the damage to Japanese nationals had been confined to the dropping of a Russian shell on a Japanese hotel, killing a woman and wounding a man.

The consul said he was writing at the request of the Russian commander at Manchuli that the conduct of the Russian forces was unimpeachable, and that order was being maintained. He said that White Russians opposing the soviet were being arrested and deported to Siberia; the soviet commander had distributed flour free to the poorest Manchurian residents and sold foodstuffs cheaply to others, and that in some cases loot taken by Chinese soldiers had been recovered and returned to the proper owners.

CHINESE STOP PARTY

Rengo's correspondent aboard the international train asserted members of the consular parties are inclined to the belief that Chinese opposition to the investigation was due to the desire to keep the consuls in ignorance of looting and destruction of which Chinese soldiers have been guilty.

MISSIONARY CARRIED OFF BY BANDITS

Large Ransom Reported
To Be Sought by Chinese
as Sequel to Capture

HANKOW, Dec. 16. (AP)—Rev. H. K. W. Sandy, a representative of the British Wesleyan Mission at Tayeh, Southeastern Hupeh Province, has been captured by bandits who are reported to be holding him for a large ransom.

Word of Sandy's being taken prisoner, reaching here today, said the capture had been carried out in the same place and by the same band of asserted Communists who carried off Rev. Ulrich Kreutzen, American missionary, November 11, last. Kreutzen later was released on payment of a small ransom.

Several missionaries who left the interior as the result of recent uprisings arrived here today. Others withdrew to Hwangshieh-Kang, Hupeh, where an American gunboat is protecting them.

Capturing of the missionary was carried out in an ordinary manner. There was no plundering and no firing, but all houses were searched by the bandits.

Tayeh is a Communist stronghold.

A second Wesleyan missionary at Tayeh, Rev. E. H. Lively, British, was reported captured with Sandy.

SECOND DARGIE WILL RECORDED

Contest Believed Likely for Oakland Estate

Former Publisher's Widow Cuts Bequests

Principal Beneficiaries May Divide $1,250,000

OAKLAND, Dec. 16. (Exclusive)—Attorneys Frank O'Connor of San Francisco and Jefferson Chandler of Los Angeles today filed in Alameda county Superior Court a second will of the late Mrs. Hermine Peralta Dargie, widow of the former owner of the Oakland Tribune. The filing created considerable surprise and hastened, it is believed, the time for a contest of the estate.

The first document, dated December 13, 1928, and filed the 12th inst., disposed of an estate estimated at $1,500,000, with specific bequests amounting to $540,000, including one of $250,000 to Capt. Antonio Rodriguez Martin of the Royal Engineer Corps of Spain and another of $150,000 to her sister, Mrs. Joseph Peralta Wilson.

REQUESTS SLASHED
The second instrument, dated March 27, last, slashes the specific bequests to $242,000, Capt. Martin being given no specific amount, and Mrs. Wilson being cut to $50,000.

Despite this, it is believed neither will lose, but will gain, provided the estate is the amount originally estimated, because they are made residuary legatees, sharing the estate equally after specific bequests are cared for. Should the estimate hold, they will divide approximately $1,250,000.

The second will, it is said, was found when a safety deposit box in Mrs. Dargie's name was opened in an Oakland bank. The executors named in the second instrument are the same as those named in the first.

NEPHEW CUT OFF
The second document cuts many small bequests, including several to employees of the Tribune and adds several new names to the list of heirs. Mrs. Wilson's son, Peralta, is cut off. Mrs. Wilson's son, Peralta, is cut off. Mrs. Wilson's son, Peralta, is cut off.

ITALIAN ENVOY GETS HONORARY DOCTORATE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16. (AP)—An honorary degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred upon Ambassador De Martino of Italy last night by Georgetown University. In accepting, he said it was an honor conferred upon his country and he praised the recently signed Latin American Treaty, establishing a Papal State, as an example of justice and equity almost without parallel. He asserted that President Mussolini was particularly deserving of praise in connection with the negotiation of the treaty.

BLAZE LAID TO RUM RUNNERS

Fire at Long Beach Imperils Lives of Three

Smugglers Unload Cargo Just Before Conflagration

Owner Tells Police That She Had Received Warning

"By a Times Staff Correspondent
LONG BEACH, Dec. 16.—Rum runners engaged in landing liquor on Terminal Island were blamed after an investigation today by Detective Sergeants H. E. Lebaron and Ben Wood, for the burning of a small building from which a woman and her two children narrowly escaped with their lives.

The burning of the dwelling Sunday morning was preceded by an unsuccessful attempt to burn the building earlier when Mrs. Jack Spratt, the occupant, awakened by a noise, saw two strange men outside. She demanded to know what they wanted, but they made no answer. Picking up her two children, she ran to a neighbor's home. The neighbor aided her in extinguishing flames which had sprung up in the bedroom.

HOUSE AGAIN AFIRE
At 3 a. m., several hours after the first attempt to burn the dwelling, Mrs. Spratt was awakened to discover the house again in flames. She looked out and saw a rooster drive by on the sand. She rushed to her babies, but the building was destroyed.

Mrs. Eva Ruffner, 1923 East Sixth Place, Los Angeles, reported to police that she had been warned not to permit anybody to live in the building during the winter. The structure was equipped as a hot-dog stand for summer use. She did not give the source of the warning.

SIGNS OF SMUGGLERS
Police investigation today revealed that liquor smugglers had unloaded a boatload of contraband, probably shortly after the building was burned to the ground. Traces indicated that the undestroyed garage had been used in the smuggling operation.

It is believed that the smugglers caused the fire either accidentally or intentionally, for the purpose of forcing the only persons living within a considerable distance of the unloading point to leave the district.

Mrs. Spratt, a still walker, and one child were in Los Angeles participating in a vaudeville show at the time of the fire. The family was occupying the building rent free and has been left destitute by the fire.

Santa Ana Will Have Air Beacon

SANTA ANA, Dec. 15.—A $50,000-candlepower air beacon, one of a system extending along the coast between San Diego and Los Angeles, will be installed in thirty days at the Eddie Marion Airport here, according to a decision reached at a conference.

Lawrence C. Elliott, always extension superintendent, always division. Department of Commerce, and James Irvine, Jr., mayor of the airport.

The beacon will be the only one between Los Angeles and a similar light to be installed on a hill three miles northeast of San Juan, Capistrano. It will consist of a white revolving light, said to be visible thirty miles on clear nights, mounted on a tower fifty feet high. A green light indicating an emergency landing field, and a red light showing fires, their course, will be part of the illuminating system.

STATE'S SCHOOLS LAUDED

Distinguished London Educator and Editor Praises California's Educational System

GLENDALF, Dec. 16.—Any attempt to classify a child for the purpose of education is fraught with danger, Mrs. Beatrice Ennor, of London, editor of the New Era and founder of the New Educational Fellowship in England, told the Glendale teachers at the initial session of the fifth annual institute here today. "Primary education should be for the purpose of permitting the child to select for himself and to awaken his potential talents," Mrs. Ennor declared. Educators must discard group consciousness and adopt the individual viewpoint, she insisted, if they would avoid disaster.

The schools of California are known in England as among the finest in the world, and she stated that she was advised to make a study of the schools in this State as one of the most important parts of her visit to the United States. In a review of English educational methods, Mrs. Ennor stated that teachers in that country have adopted as a philosophy of education "The psychology of the Whole," which means allowance for the emotional and

Reward Offered for Capture of Hotel Bandits

PASADENA, Dec. 16.—Spurred on by a $1000 reward offered by D. M. Linnard, widely known hotel owner, local police are attempting to follow minor clues which may lead to the capture of the hotel bandits who yesterday robbed the Hotel Huntington cash drawer of $800 and escaped after binding and gagging Robert Gleason, hotel clerk, because of a nasal stoppage was almost suffocated to death by the band, was completely recovered today.

Detective Lieutenants Robert O'Rourke and Arthur Hunsell, in charge of the investigation, voiced the opinion that the bandits were thoroughly familiar with the habits of the hotel waiters. The robbers walked in the main entrance of the hotel at 4:15 a. m. just ten minutes after the bandits had been seen leaving the hotel.

The bandits, who were armed with a .45-caliber revolver and a .38 Smith & Wesson, hurriedly fled to open the hotel's heavy steel safe, but finding it locked, they then attempted to break it open with a crowbar. The safe was opened in 40 minutes in currency from a cash drawer.

In offering the reward today, Linnard suggested that public-spirited residents of this city raise a $100,000 fund to be used in assisting the police in tracing and capturing the bandits of major crimes in this city.

COUNTY'S ORDINANCE OPPOSED

Redlands Walton League Against Measure Banning Removal of Fish Spawn

REDLANDS, Dec. 16.—The Redlands Chapter of the Inland Empire League has gone on record as opposed to the county ordinance which prohibits transportation from the county of fish raised from native spawn and has prepared a petition to present to the County Supervisors asking its repeal.

It was stated that the ordinance is in conflict with the movement of the State to establish rearing ponds at the junction of Santa Ana and Force Creek.

Ivey Burton, was named by President T. Elliott to appear before the Supervisors and ask that the law be repealed or ignored. If San Bernardino cannot obtain approval of its site for the rearing ponds, it is believed that Riverside county's Snow Creek site will be chosen.

Because Redlands members of the league have been vigilant, fifty-nine cases of illegal shooting of birds have been brought before the Board of Justice of the peace since September 1, last, said President Elliott. Hunters have been stopped returning from Imperial Valley and others totaling $5000 have been collected.

A proposed State law which would make it mandatory to utilize all game birds did not receive favor from the Waltonites here. The measure started as a resolution by the Centennial Valley chapter and will be considered soon by the Orange Belt Council. It would prohibit the use of game birds and fur-bearing animals. It is intended to restrict the practice of hunting for trophies only. The local members could not agree that hunters should be forced to eat all the game or fish they may gather, and then the matter was tabled for discussion again later.

Sheriff's Office on Lookout for Yule Rum Ship

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 16.—With a rum ship reported lurking off Santa Cruz Island and cruising in these waters in an effort to land a contraband Christmas cargo, Sheriff James Ross and deputies have increased their vigilance along the coast and are watching unfamiliar trucks on the highways, day and night.

A landing was reported to be ready the middle of last week near Honolua, and Sheriff Ross dispatched deputies to the point where the United States destroyers went on the rocks. A watch is being kept on practically all of the harbors in an effort to catch any loads landed in this county, he said.

Since the starting of the night patrol, rum runners, apparently have avoided trucking through this county, Sheriff Ross said. Within the past few months more than 1000 gallons of alcohol have been seized but since the holiday season opened not a single liquor-carrying truck has been detected, he reported.

A number of daylight inspections of suspicious trucks have been made by Sheriff Ross and his deputies. The network to prevent the passage of liquor-carrying trucks through this county will be drawn tighter before Christmas, Sheriff Ross said.

ORCHARD HEATERS LACK OIL

Ontario Growers Pray for Mild Winter, Due to Death of "Smudging" Fuel for Warming Citrus Groves

ONTARIO, Dec. 16.—Citrus growers of this district are praying for rain, and also uttering prayers for an orchard heaterless winter, upon learning from Floyd D. Young, government meteorologist and frost forecaster for this valley, that there is not enough smudge pot oil to go around for more than three fillings of heaters.

The supply of oil on hand is sufficient to fill the oil pots about two and one-half times, whereas the supply should be large enough to assure five fillings, should a protracted cold or an obsolete "garbage can" orchard heaters have been removed and modern high-pressure heaters installed, which has done much to reduce the smoke menace. Continued cold has been completed by a higher grade of oil and more attention to adjustment of the heaters.

A number of key stations are maintained throughout the valley, and should Young detect a "freeze" coming, the key stations are notified. About $50,000 is involved in the establishment of the new phone system. $2000 for site and building; $25,000 for central office equipment; $7500 for station equipment; and $10,000 for outside plant equipment.

"My license? Why, I don't need a license. I own all the cars you see going by. I own 50,000 automobiles," replied the motorist, whose name was the insignia of a physician.

Peterkin blinked his eyes. "Who are you?" he inquired timidly. "I'm the president of the world," responded the motorist. "Ah, exactly," said Peterkin. "I'm a loyal Republican myself, so just come along and I'll take you down to the White House. The east room is waiting."

ZINC CONTINUES MARKET SLUMP

Further Price Cut Made and Upturn Signs Remote

Weakness Laid to World-wide Oversupply Chiefly

Copper and Lead Hold Firm at Previous Levels

BY CHARLES F. WILLIS

Editor The Times Journal, Phoenix

Copper and lead have maintained their prices, but zinc has again slumped, this time to 3.80 to 3.90 f.o.b. St. Louis.

Several factors have contributed to the continued weakness of the zinc market and any hope of much improvement seems to be distant.

Copper remains strong at 17.75 f.o.b. refinery and lead at 8.25 f.o.b. New York.

Statistically, lead is in fair condition, the demand and deliveries being sufficient to prevent an accumulation of stocks.

The lead situation is considered healthy and the lines of business which consume lead in quantity promise extensive work next year.

With an increase more than sufficient to take care of sloughing off in other lines.

There has been a continued willingness on the part of the consumers to buy at the present low lead figure and sales are reported as fair.

Producers have expressed themselves as being well satisfied with the volume of business and pleased with the market both here and abroad.

ZINC CARTEL ABANDONED

Abandonment of the negotiations to keep the European zinc cartel together was announced, but a later report stated that the committee was still working and that the former report was premature.

It is felt, however, that the differences existing are too great to be overcome.

European members blame the American zinc interests, while the Americans state that the reason is the desire of European countries to increase output.

It is apparent, however, that the fundamental reason for the weakness of the zinc market is the world-wide overproduction accompanied by a European resumption against the quantity of zinc being shipped to Europe by American producers when they have ample zinc production of their own.

United States exports of zinc consist primarily of metal smelted in the United States from Mexican ores in bond.

The difficulty of the domestic zinc market is shown in the fact that there was 47,620 tons produced in the United States during November and 41,715 tons shipped, thus increasing the stocks by 5,905 tons to 63,061 tons, which is the largest surplus since February, 1922.

The unutilized tonnage on the books of the zinc smelters decreased 3102 tons during November and stood on December 1 at 11,622 tons. A year ago this time the unutilized tonnage stood at 50,173 tons and this probably the most hopeful factor of the zinc situation as it shows that the zinc users must soon come into the market to buy.

NO CHANGE IN COPPER

Copper has continued dull with no change in the situation, the consumers buying only that which is immediately needed and very few inquiries otherwise.

Foreign demand, however, is picking up and in a few days have seen some good order change hands.

A large increase in stocks of refined copper was expected in November so that there was no surprise when the figures showed the surplus stocks at the end of November to be 128,919 tons, or an increase of 38,518 tons over November.

Stocks are expected to further increase in December.

The buying for the major construction projects should start in January and the producers should have no difficulty in holding that market until that time.

The bulls and bears of Wall Street have each developed their side of the copper situation in an effort to move-up or down—the price of copper should be steady.

The bulls contend that the price will be less dividends and even if they stay put and will not reduce the price, curtailment will decrease earnings.

On the other hand, the bulls say that the financial conditions of the copper companies will enable them to lower prices and leave dividends intact; that they can stand a long period of slow buying and sell at lower prices and leave dividends intact; that they can stand a long period of slow buying and sell at lower prices and leave dividends intact.

The optimists reports of the country's industrial leaders at the Washington conference on the outlook of business conditions for 1930 were not without their influence on the copper market. If all the expansion programs scheduled for 1930 materialize, there will be no danger of overproduction of the metal, say producers.

While domestic consumers are expected to buy some copper before the end of the current year, no large turnover is expected owing to the desire to keep down inventories.

After the turn of the year, however, the demand that is being held in check should make itself felt.

OUTLOOK FOR METALS

Speaking before President Hoover's conference of business executives, F. H. Brownell, vice-president of the American Smelting and Refining Company, stated that the copper outlook was good, lead situation normal and zinc position poor.

Speaking particularly of the zinc situation, Mr. Brownell said: "This is not due to any conditions in the United States at all. It is rather due to a world condition. During the last year many new zinc mines of sizable proportions have been brought into production. Older mines have increased their output.

"In 1915, under the stress of the war, the Australian government—Australia is an important zinc-producing nation—paid bonuses for a period of fifteen years in order to induce the mines to enlarge their capacity. These bonuses expire in the middle of 1930, and Australia, taking advantage of that situation and increasing their plant production, has year by year increased their zinc production.

"A combination of these two circumstances, the bringing in of additional Canadian and Newfoundland production, as well as some South American production, swamped the big markets of the world about the middle of this year, and since then the price has fallen.

"The excess production brought about by cause which I have related will begin to rectify themselves about the middle of the coming year, when the Australian bonus runs out, and from then we may expect a gradual resumption of normal conditions in the zinc business."

Our New Improvement
Bond Booklet

EXPLAINS clearly and simply the various types of bonds issued under state law to pay for public improvements. It shows how installment bonds issued under the 1911 and 1921 Acts, commonly known as "street bonds," differ from Road District, 1915 and Mattoon Act bonds, which are payable in full at maturity and are similar in form to corporation bonds.

Regardless of form all California Improvement Bonds are fundamental liens against real estate. They embody attractive yield, tax-exemption, diversity, and exceptional security. They have been popular among conservative investors for more than twenty years.

Report on Farm
Board Rallies
Wheat Market

CHICAGO, Dec. 16. (AP)—Circulation of a report that the Federal Farm Board had issued a statement that unlimited funds would be available to loan to wheat farmers on the basis previously established regardless of the fact that market prices might drop to below that basis gave a touch of fire to wheat buying today. The market jumped quickly and closed at about the day's top level.

Chicago closing quotations on wheat were buoyant, 2 1/2 to 2 3/4 a bushel higher than Saturday's finish. Corn closed 1/4 to 1 1/2 a bushel lower, 1/4 to 1/2 a bushel higher than Saturday's finish. Soybean futures were buoyant, 1/4 to 1/2 a bushel higher than Saturday's finish. The market was active and closed at about the day's top level.

Before word came that the Federal Farm Board was taking an aggressive stand in favor of higher prices for wheat, the market here had shown considerable of an upward trend at times, but was beginning to drop when dispatches from Washington were received outlining the board's position. Throughout the remainder of the day wheat gained rapidly in strength. Activity of buying continued unabated in the face of news that the United States wheat supply was shown by a disappointedly small decrease, 312,000 bushels, reduction for the week.

Contributing to the strength of wheat values today, however, was news that the amount of wheat on ocean passage had fallen off more than 2,500,000 bushels since a week ago, and that 36,664,000 bushels, compared with 34,864,000 bushels at this time last year, world shipments for the week being only 10,876,000 bushels against 17,297,000 bushels at this time in 1928. Export business today in wheat from North America was estimated at 800,000 bushels. Corn and oats rose with wheat. Provisions limited downward because of setbacks in the values of hogs.

The rich man's brow is not so lucky to achieve it; but he is so difficult indeed to make that he believes it. The rich man, who some twenty years ago, shipped some twenty suits, and now has seven pairs of boots, and one pair of shoes, and a time, one pair of shoes he's wearing, as he proclaims from crime to crime, he is a grievous burden to himself, and he might behold him smiling, and anyone who's not a dandy would think his lot beguiling.

He could wear some fourteen suits while going to a party, he might beat against him, and with rapture high and hearty, if he could wear the street in his shoes as down the street he goes. I wouldn't say it's a waste to have large rolls and bundles, and still the poor man, who is awake to long for endless suits for suits he'd have to make, for suit and suit, and down his, redoubting in splendor, gold-headed, and costly spats and gloves, and silk suspenders. He could wear some fourteen suits while going to a party, he might beat against him, and with rapture high and hearty, if he could wear the street in his shoes as down the street he goes. # "LIE" CRY STARTLES COURT

Woman Hurls Accusation as Another One Denies
Wrongful Association With Husband

A dramatic moment came in the hearing of the petition for a divorce filed by Mrs. Josephine K. Batterton, blonde decorator, against Elton Batterton, a workman, yesterday while she was giving her testimony when another young woman, sitting in the rear of the courtroom, leaped to her feet and shouted:

"It's a lie—all a lie!"

Superior Judge Hollister, before whom the hearing was being held, ordered Bailiff Pat Soran to restore order in the courtroom.

Mrs. Batterton was testifying that her husband falsely had accused her of infidelity and of associating with numerous men, especially one named Carter.

At the close of the wife's testimony the judge ordered the young woman who had created the disturbance to take the witness stand. When questioned she said:

"I am Mrs. Pearl Carter, wife of D. L. Carter, and that woman"—she pointed to Mrs. Batterton—"broke up my home. She ran away with my husband and after he came back and asked to be forgiven, she kept writing to him and lured him away again."

Mrs. Batterton, however, insisted she met Carter at church where he was a choir leader and that their relationship had been nothing more than friendship.

Judge Hollister continued the case until the 23rd inst., and asked that Carter be subpoenaed so that he may take the witness stand.

The plaintiff company does not own any of the property contiguous to the so-called Humphreys site, which the Humphreys intended to buy for the proposed $2,500,000 state office building before they finally decided on the site at First and Spring.

County Council action moved to oppose the injunction suit as soon as papers were served on members of the Board of Supervisors yesterday morning. J. H. O'Connor, assistant county counsel, was immediately assigned to prepare a demurrer to the suit which, he said, will be ready to present to the court this morning.

SIMILAR SUIT LOST

A similar "taxpayer's suit" was filed against the purchase of the Humphreys site by Leslie R. Saunders, owner of a rival site at First and Olive streets, a check of court records disclosed yesterday. This suit was opposed by Assistant Council O'Connor and ruled out by a decision by Judge Gates. It contended that the purchase of the Humphreys site was a "waste of public funds," and that the site at First and Olive streets would be a better place for a state building.

Judge Gates decided adversely on both these contentions, holding in effect that inasmuch as the published intention of the city and county is to acquire all land in the

The customary week for the consideration of nominations lapsed yesterday, without indication from the committee as to its attitude toward Brooks.

Jacobson yesterday sent to Minnie Clerk Browning a letter attacking Brooks and directed that it be read aloud. Usually such communications are merely attached to the file. This letter is from K. B. Walton, who describes himself as chairman of the grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen. The letter declares that Brooks "is opposed" to "municipal ownership."

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK MASON

GALL STONES

Gall stones resemble small, round, yellowish-brown, or greenish, or even more, they are not more common after 50. They are as many women are afflicted with them.

One large gall stone is not likely to cause distress as several small ones. The reason for this is that the large stone stays in the gall bladder and is not so likely to be dislodged and cause the trouble which acts as a constant irritant. The smaller ones cause the trouble by being dislodged and passing into the duct to the intestine. This passing of a gall stone produces a sharp pain in the right upper abdomen, which is known as gall-stone colic. It is known as gall-stone colic because it does not always come, although it is so irregularly painful that to most patients it is unbearable. It is rarely fatal.

The pain is due to the constriction of the stones through the narrow bile duct. If the stone is stopped before it enters the duct, the condition is not serious, but if it enters the duct, it causes a backing up of bile into the liver instead of allowing it to pass into the intestine in the normal manner. From the liver, the bile is forced back into the blood stream, and this causes the yellow coloring of the skin and the face that has been mentioned. Sometimes the gall stone stops in the duct, and the patient goes through an acute inflammatory process from the effect of numerous gall stones rubbing against it.

The formation of the gall stone is due to a stagnation of the bile in the gall bladder. This is significant that athletes who are in good training never have gall stones. An overconsumption of starches in the diet, a lack of exercise, will in years, cause a stagnation of the gall bladder. Mr. Mason, because they are physically active than women, only 25 per cent of the cases.

The symptoms of gall stones are such that the patient feels something wrong with his digestion. He loses his appetite and has a great deal of trouble in eating. He may vomit occasionally, and he has a feeling of fullness in the stomach and the region to the right of it. It is a feeling of fullness, as if he is troubled with indigestion and typical gall-stone colic is a reasonably sure sign of gall stones as the seat of his trouble.

If he does not have the colic, many more do not. It is extremely difficult to diagnose his trouble, even the X-ray is not always reliable, and it is difficult to distinguish whether the trouble is from gall stones or from inflammation of the gall bladder. The difference between the inflammation of the gall bladder and the gall stones is often quite different. Even a Graham dye examination does not always tell the difference between the inflammation of the gall bladder and the formation of gall stones. The two conditions are similar, however, so that an exact diagnosis in the beginning of the treatment does not always seem necessary.

In tomorrow's article I will explain this method.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

A Nice Omelet

Shake some rice or potato water into your omelet before putting them away. It will keep them from becoming soggy and give them a nice, leathery, crisp, golden brown when cooked.

Most Important

Be certain to keep an accurate list of the things sent to the laundry. Then when anything is lost or torn, you are certain of your laundry and a reliable laundry is always ready to make good in the case of regular customers.

Covered Bottoms

You can make your own covered bottoms by covering short boots with underwear buttons instead of the usual mounds. Cover the inside down and use a cord of galvanized wire just fit into the bottom of the boot, giving you something with which to attach to the dress.

CARICATURES CARVED IN WOOD

Mexican Has Developed Unusual Gift

Ignacio Arboleya in His Workshop

THE great and illustrious of the world, at least to one man in Los Angeles, mean nothing more than an opportunity to carve and decorate small blocks of wood into striking caricatures. Ignacio Arboleya, property man, stage carpenter and general utility man for the Teatro Mexico, 110 South Main street, has found time between his many duties in the ancient theater to develop a new art.

With only a keen-edged pocket knife and a small assortment of rough files Arboleya has molded dozens of caricatures from chunks of soft wood. When the block has been shaped and smoothed to suit the artist, Arboleya carefully lays on a coat of paint and accentuates the features with strokes of color.

The youthful caricaturist has a small workshop built in a space behind the wings of the Teatro Mexico, where his models are turned out. When the heads are finished to his satisfaction, the actresses and chorus girls playing in the theater go to his aid and help him fashion costumes and dresses for the many duties in the ancient theater to develop a new art.

Ignacio was born in Mexico City and has been in the United States for eight years, with only one ambition—that some day he will receive the same recognition given the Mexican artist Hidalgo, who has achieved fame with his wax-figure caricatures.

Arboleya's work is a masterpiece of true mind, working through can do that. The spiritual power of can do that. The spiritual power of mind is not only destructive, or harmful, through ideas of wisdom, justice, love, mind works gently but irresistibly to establish harmony, health, peace, among men.

PARIS PAINT MENTIONED

The Paris Peace Pact signed by the leading nations of the world in 1919, outlawing war, evidences the working of mind power in men. Though much remains to be done to make practical its provisions, this treaty is a mighty step toward world peace. What power caused more than three-fourths of the human race, through their representatives, to renounce war in this pact? Was it any physical power? It was the irresistible power of mind working through right ideas. This is the one universal mind that imparts to men of every race and nation the ideas of peace and unity, and guides the steps of those willing to entertain these ideas to their accomplishment. The world is made up of nearly two thousand million men and women very much like you and me. As we accept in our thinking the ideas of peace, love, and justice, and put war out of our hearts, our homes, and our business, we are contributing our part to the world's peace.

"How are you and I to lay hold of and utilize divine power, the power of eternal mind?"

"We establish contact with God and divine power as we realize the unity of our true self with God. Unity means being indivisible one with my friends. If you should take nothing from this lecture but the idea that your true self is inseparably united with God, eternal mind, you would have the corner stone of the Science of Life. This spiritual fact we must all come to understand and to demonstrate."

The Monolithic company, the mill of which is closest to the dam site, wants most for its cement, $1.24 at the mill. The Riverside and California companies, with mills between Riverside and Colton, want $1.16 at the mill. In the end, all prices add up to $1.24.

CEMENT BIDS STICK CLOSE

Remarkable unanimity of cement prices among four large producers was disclosed yesterday when the Board of Supervisors opened the bids for 100,000 barrels of cement for the Big Tujunga Dam. Although bulk prices, f.o.b. mill, varied considerably, when the freight differential and cost of storage were added, the total price was found to be $1.96 per barrel in each instance.

FIVE YOUTHS SOUGHT FOR ATTACK QUIZ

Girls Tell Officers of Auto Stalling 'Plot' and Blow That Cut Lip

Five young men are being sought for questioning following a report made yesterday to deputy sheriffs of the Norwalk station by two girls, that they were taken on a lonely spot, accosted by three men and one of them beaten.

According to the girls, Kate Halapoff, 16 years of age, of 134 South Clarence street, and Jennie Pedress, 15, of 142 South Clarence street, they were taken for a ride from two youths whose names they did not know. At New York avenue between Central and Arden streets, in Hyattsville, they asserted, the automobile in which they were riding ran into a ditch and they were informed they would have to assist in pushing it out.

While thus engaged, they asserted, three other young men with handkerchiefs concealing their faces dashed into the car and forced the youths to leave. The ease with which the car was driven from the ditch caused them to believe the youths had met by prearrangement.

When Jennie Pedress is asked to have said she recognized the men, one of them struck her, cutting her lip. The girls a short while later were picked up and taken to the Norwalk station.

Court Will Fix Drink Mixer's Legal Status

Is the act of mixing a cocktail manufacturing liquor?

This question was raised yesterday in the court of United States District Judge Fleming in the case of Joseph Daniel Murphy, arrested on January 31, last, at Muroc by Federal dry agents.

Ignacio was charged in an information with possession of 190 gallons of alcohol and liquor with manufacturing liquor. Murphy pleaded guilty to possession of liquor and was fined $500 on that count.

It was contended by McDonald and Thompson, defense attorneys, that the charge of manufacturing liquor would not stand for the reason that Murphy merely was "cutting" the alcohol.

"If one could be convicted of manufacturing liquor by mixing alcohol with water," stated Mr. McDonald, "and one were to mix a cocktail, he would be guilty of manufacturing liquor. It is the same situation."

The court continued the case so far as the "manufacturing" count is concerned until after a decision is expected on the "cocktail" question.

The Times Forum, KFI, 10:30 a.m., Dr. Frank McCoy, discussing "The Expectant Mother." World-wide news at 12:30, 4:30 and 10 p.m.

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Splendid cooperation is being shown by the broadcast stations in connection with the campaign to raise $250,000 to restore the Pilgrimage Play in the Hollywood Hills. Twelve stations have scheduled a total of twenty programs of broadcast in aid of the movement, to start Sunday. Additional provision will be made to continue until January 10, 1930, when the campaign is slated to end.

Leading musical organizations are being presented on these programs, including the KFI Don Lee Symphony Orchestra; Margit Hegedus's String Quartet of KFI; the Hollywood String Quartet of KFI; Loren Powell's Symphony Orchestra; KFI; Pryor Moore's Symphony Orchestra of KFI; Arthur Shaw, organist, and Lou Grodon and Paul Reese from KFI, and other soloists. Other stations assisting in the drive are KPOK, KEK, KRQZ, KMG, KOER and KFTV.

Five programs will be presented tonight, and many listeners will be reached by the appeal. The schedule is as follows: 8:30 to 9 p.m., KFTV, J. Howard Johnson, tenor, and Marguerite Johnson, contralto; 9 to 9:30, KMG, variety program; 9:30 to 10, KFI, Margit Hegedus's String Quartet, KFI, contralto, and Armand Girard, bass, and at KEK, KRQZ, KMG, KOER and KFTV, variety program; 10:30 to 11, KPOK, "Memory" program.

RADIO NEWSPAPER

J. E. Smith, president of the National Radio Institute of Washington, predicts as among the possibilities of the future broadcast, a radio newspaper, or bulletin in facsimile form to be flashed through space during the few hours of the morning so that the average family can have the news and pictures of the day at the breakfast table.

"Due to the interest in television, or animated pictures via radio, we have overlooked the possibilities of the photograph or facsimile system applied to the home," says Mr. Smith. "For one thing, it requires a half-hour or more to reduce good half-tone pictures via the photoradiogram process, as compared to fifteen complete pictures in a second flashed on screen by the television receiver. However, it goes without saying that the picture is a real picture, handling all pictures in capital letters, greater pictorial detail."

It is my fond belief that we will have a radio newspaper very shortly. The broadcast stations, taking advantage of the off hours of the night, will transmit photoradiogram signals without haste, thereby providing great detail. The home broadcast receiver will be used as a photoradiogram receiver, together with a time switch to turn it on and off."

McAdoo Cites Need of Southern Air Routes on Return from Capital

Establishment of the three southern air-mail routes recommended to the Postoffice Department by an interdepartmental committee will prove of inestimable benefit to Southern California, William G. McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury, said yesterday on his return to Los Angeles from Washington, where he advocated their development.

"The routes will aid the Southwest as well as the East," he said, "because rapid transportation of mail, especially bank exchanges, securities and such orders is absolutely essential to modern business. Air-mail contracts will enable transport companies to establish convenient schedules of reasonable passenger rates, and I predict that tourists to Southern California one day will be using the air lines in coming here."

McAdoo arrived yesterday in his Lockheed plane, negotiating the 1055-mile hop from Midland, Tex., in seven hours and thirty minutes.

BARRYMORE IN

SARDONIC ROLE

Romantic Costume Feature

for Talkie Debut

Star Enacts Leader Who

Holds Empetor in Thrill

Lowell Sherman Effective in

Ruler Portrayal

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

Smooth, sardonic, oftentimes brilliant, a new John Barrymore emerges as a luminary of the audible screen. You can view and hear him in his first talking picture at Warner Brothers Theater in Hollywood. "General Crack" is the title of the sardonic historical costume feature with the background of Imperial Austria during the reign of Leopold II.

General Crack is a leader, a hiring commander of the Leopoldian forces, in wars fought 150 years ago. (It does not touch for his historical accuracy in detail, of course.) He is the natural son of the Duke of Kurland by a proper girl, reared for the battlefield, but capable also of diabolical intrigue.

It is this role that Barrymore portrays.

The production is a superior adventure into the costume realm. In quality of settings and dramatic effectiveness it is practically the best feature of this type so far produced.

Alan Crossland was responsible for the direction, and the cast includes besides Barrymore, Lowell Sherman, Marion Nixon, Armida and Hobart Bosworth.

Barrymore and Sherman are notably outstanding, though Bosworth, too, evinces most noteworthy attainments. There incidentally some very capital work done by Otto Matiesen and Douglas Gerrard, Andre de Segurola, Jacqueline Logan, William Von Brincken and Theodore Lodi figure more slightly in the plot.

Altogether it is an advantageous debut of Barrymore as a speaking star of the screen that is achieved. If there are moments when his irony is a little too persistent and too personal (somewhat like the Barrymore irony that his friends know) it does not detract seriously from the interest of the portrayal.

RESTRAINT ADMIRABLE

Barrymore is far more restrained than he has been at times on the silent screen, and the restraint with which he imbues his work is indeed an attractive thing. So, too, in a degree are his occasional dynamic outbursts, capable of making nervous people almost jump out of their seats.

Barrymore, too, invests love-making with a proper dignity. The scenes, with the possible exception of one, are not in the least overdone, and the temptation to make them too must have existed with the gypsy motif that is introduced.

The latter part of the picture seems less interesting than the first, but that is because it is rather abundantly and the drama becomes more mechanical.

Fine indeed are those scenes which witness the diplomatic conflicts between Barrymore and Sherman. The general chooses every opportunity to make them even to the extent of bringing his gypsy wife to meet the court on the evening when his (the general's) betrothal to the sister of the ruler, the archduchess, is supposed to be announced.

I would nominate as the finest encounter between Barrymore and Sherman the one where the emperor is called upon to order the execution of the tale-bearer who relates to the general that his gypsy bride had become the favorite of the ruler. The conversation between the two is filled with double meanings, and admirably carried out by the two actors. Sherman's work is exceedingly competent in this scene.

Much may be said for Marion Nixon's personal charm in her portrayal of the archduchess, and the archduchess's scenes are very humanly and sympathetically carried out.

Philippe de Lacy is responsible for a pleasing portrayal as the child Christian who becomes the general's later on. Nick Thompson and Kurt Reifeld are in the cast. Adaptation of the story by George Preedy was made by Walter Anthony and J. Grubb Alexander.

A short subject, "Niagara Falls," with Bryant Washburn and Selma Jerome Eddy is on the bill, and while it offers a patented idea, it serves to amuse.

Lincoln Starts

"Paid in Full"

"Paid in Full," one of Eugene Walters' earlier dramatic successes, was given a worth-while presentation at the Lincoln Theater last night by the colored Lafayette Players.

The production was marked by a smoothness both as to the actors' share and the mechanical end.

"Paid in Full" is a drama of a woman going through the process of becoming disillusioned in her husband and his love for her, and of the disintegration of her love for him.

Stellar honors last night were divided four ways between Cleo Desmond as the wife, Lionel Monagas as the husband, Andrew Bishop as Jimmy, the friend of the family, and Sidney Kirkpatrick as the villain. Each gave a good portrayal. Laura Bowman, Theresa Brooks and Barrington Carter completed the cast.

TIFFANY COMPANY

REWARDS ROGELL

In appreciation of his work in directing "Mamba," one of its specials of the year, Albert Rogell has been tendered a new agreement with the Tiffany Film Company.

According to a report from the offices of Grant L. Cook, chief executive of this organization, Rogell will make four more productions for this institution.

The difficulties that beset Rogell in his making of "Mamba" and the way in which he overcame them in the making of "Mamba" are said to have inspired a sincere feeling of admiration on the part of executives for his abilities.

"SWEETIE" COMING TO

PARAMOUNT

Screen Musical Comedy

Starts Thursday; Cast

Versatile

"Sweetie," a musical comedy of the screen, will open at the Paramount Theater Thursday. It follows the current attraction of George Bancroft in "The Mighty."

"Sweetie" boasts a versatile cast. Nancy Carroll is in the leading role. Helen Kane, noted recording artist with the baby voice, and known as the "Boop-boop-dee-dee" girl, is also prominently featured. Jack Oakie, freckled-faced comedian; William Austin, son of the famous comedy parts; Stanley Smith and Stuart Erwin are the male cut-ups of this youthful cast.

Miss Carroll and Stanley Smith sing the theme song, "Sweetie Than Sweet." Helen Kane sings such numbers as "Hi-Lo Unusual," "I Think You'll Like It" and "The Prep Step." Jack Oakie's most popular number is "Alma Mammy." George Marion, Jr., wrote the story and the lyrics. Frank Tuttle directed.

Orpheum Plans

Gala Reopening

With New Film

The world premiere of "Bill the Deck," Radio Pictures' musical comedy achievement, will take place at the Orpheum Theater Christmas morning.

The opening is a double event, for the Orpheum Theater is also presenting "The Talking Picture" by R.K.A. sound system.

Particular attention has been given to the talking-picture equipment installed. No expense or effort has been spared, it is said, and numerous advance tests made before engineers assure the public of the best sound reproduction in the West, according to Orpheum officials.

"Bill the Deck" is a glorified musical comedy which enjoyed much popularity on the stage a year or so ago. Jack Oakie's singing personality enlivens the leading role of Bilge Smith, and Polly Walker, from the New York comedy stage, is seen as Leopold. Several new song hits are added to the already popular numbers. Luther Reed directed.

Date Advanced

for "Susanna"

"Oh, Susanna!" will start at the Mayan Theater the 27th inst. Rehearsals are moving along splendidly, it is said, and everything promises to be in good shape when the curtain goes up on the great festa scene which opens the play.

A gala premiere with flood lights, musical announcements, streamers, colored arcs and all the accoutrements of the usual opening and more, too, will add to the Christmas spirit.

Carlotta King and Wallace MacDonald head the large cast, and a singing and dancing chorus of 100 is being whipped into shape by George Rosener and Bud Murray.

FOLLIES BILL CHANGES

Burlesque fans are finding "Top of the World Girls" current bill at the Follies Theater, very much to their liking. Certainly it embraces everything that goes to make real burlesque—and the show is executed with forthrightness. Evelyn Myers and Evelyn Ramway portray the spits of the burlesque's theme, both in their work throughout the comedy and in their song and dance numbers. Fugler and Semon, added and abetted by Beulah Frohman, Hal Ford, Ruth Clemens, Mack White and Bob Shaler, round out the show.

Eddie Buzzell Makes Film

Debut in "Little Johnny Jones" at Downtown

BY PHILIP K. SCHUEER

"A quarter-century of progress" brings us round again to "Little Johnny Jones," which, twenty-five years old, is now a talking picture.

George M. Cohan's story through the Warner Brothers' Downtown Theater yesterday, as the new Vitaphone production of the week. It is notable for the introduction to the cinema of another New York stage star, that same Eddie Buzzell who has sung and comedied his way through revues without number, and who takes to the films with the assurance of what is commonly called a veteran.

Buzzell's authority in wrestling with the old familiar tangle of the jockey who was "framed" makes his part seem almost like something original. He receives capable support from a cast led by Allen Day and Robert Edison, and including in its roster Edna Murphy, Wheeler Oakman, Donald Reed and Raymond Turner, but most of all from a live cameraman or cameramen who have caught the sights and sounds of three turf classics—Midwestbrook, Belmont and Epsom Downs—and made them stirring.

Outside of the races, the scenes of the jockey who was "framed" are a pattern that the spectator, if he is so minded and his neighbor does not object, may readily speak the lines of the characters a second or two before the characters themselves. He may also, if in good humor, be amused in the refrain of "Give My Regards to Broadway" and "Yankee Doodle Boy." Two other numbers—"Go Find Somebody to Love" and "My Paradise"—belong to the later vogue. All are introduced as logically as possible in a narrative drama, and of course they serve no purpose other than to give Buzzell a chance to sing. "My Paradise" particularly is a waste in the emotional quality needed to move a hardened audience in a Southampton "pub" to watch a jockey who is "framed" to do the deed in the picture. It should have been at least, "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?"

The long arm of coincidence is stretched in "Little Johnny Jones," that the youthful racer may be allowed to ride the same horse, Yankee Doodle, in all three events. A telegram which falls into the hands of the Belmont racing committee, addressed to Jones and reading, "Don't fall me. We must lose," results in the jockey's being disbarred from the track in America. He goes to England and so does Yankee Doodle and his owner. And at Epsom Downs, Johnny rides Yankee Doodle to victory.

Buzzell is no ordinary screen type and will not, it is likely, become a favorite; but a certain decisive intelligence in his manner of going about his business will react in his favor—currently, at any rate. Robert Edison is, as always, a delight to watch; and Allen Day movably genuine. Edna Murphy plays her usual vamp.

Mervyn LeRoy's direction is clear cut and avoids undue stress on the nautilus, except in the "pub" scene. The Cohan play was adapted for the screen by Aladele Helblum and Buzzell.

Bert Lahr provides something a little out of the ordinary in non-sense in "Put Him On," a Vitaphone short with Bobbe Arnst. There are also a singing act and Pathe News.

According to Attorney Richard H. Cantillon, who, with the firm of Farley & Williams, filed the complaint, Sunday was last heard of in Indianapolis.

Misconduct with the co-respondent is asserted to have taken place at Santa Cruz and at Los Angeles. In addition charges of cruelty are contained in the complaint. Mrs. Sunday asserting that her husband struck her, called her vile names, and indulged to excess in alcoholic liquor.

Deputies from the local Sheriff's office hold warrants for Sunday and Mauryne LaSalle, mother of a 5-year-old son, on adultery, complaints signed by Mrs. Sunday growing out of the asserted discovery of her husband and Mauryne LaSalle in Sunday's apartment at an early-morning hour.

The last seen of the couple was November 25, last, when they drove away in a taxi from Santa Cruz, Sunday stating he would give himself up to Oakland police on a grand-theft warrant, sworn to by an Oakland auto-rental firm.

Three Couples Held Up by Robbers Blamed for
Series of Jobs

Believed to have been perpetrators of a number of hold-ups and robberies in the vicinity of the Midwick View Estates in recent weeks, a pair of bandits who last Saturday night held up and robbed three couples parked in automobiles and in two instances disabled their victims' cars, were being sought yesterday by deputy sheriffs. According to reports on file at the Sheriff's office, the pair are described as a Mexican and an American.

While parked at Question Mark Hill, Earle Ross, 1427 Sydney Drive, was robbed of $50 in cash and his companion, Catherine Ophan, of between $5 and $7, according to a report. Following the robbery the American is asserted to have wiped the car to obliterate possible fingerprints while the Mexican pulled loose the distributor wires in the motor.

The bandits failed to obtain anything of value from Robert Wilks, Jr., of Downey, and his companion, Edna Brown, 5432 San Luis street, South Gate, according to a report. The couple also were parked at Question Mark Hill, the report sets forth.

Gilman Spurr, 3530 Chestnut street, South Gate, was parked in his automobile with Gwendolyn Sant, 1254 East Eighth street, at the waterfront on the Midwick View Estates when they were accosted by the pair, who took $5 from Spurr's billfold and disconnected the distributor wires in the car, according to the police records.

Chief Davis testified briefly that he received Mayor Porter's instructions and had transferred Hoy from the vice squad to the robbery squad. He said Hoy had made a number of arrests in the Central-avenue district while working on the vice squad.

Hoy said he had been active in the Central-avenue area for about eight months, but after his transfer was told to keep out of the district even if he had a robbery case there. He said he arrested Bebe Hendricks on one occasion. Hendricks was one of the State's principal witnesses in the case on trial.

Curtis Mosby, operator of the Apex Night Club, also was called as a defense witness. Through his testimony the defense sought to refute a prosecution inference that he and McClanahan had been friends.

The trial will proceed today with the defendants scheduled to take the witness stand in their own defense.

Police Officers' Trial

Move Charged "Frame-Up"
Against Them

Efforts to show that Detective-Lieutenant Hoy was removed from the police vice squad about two months ago and ordered to stay out of the Central-avenue district pending the investigation of the case against Arthur McClanahan, S. S. Wyle and Cornelius N. Bradford, negro police officers, charged with eight counts of bribery, were made yesterday by the defense in Superior Judge Hardy's court, where McClanahan, Wyle and Bradford are on trial.

In line with this move, defense attorneys called Mayor Porter, Chief of Police Davis and Hoy to the witness stand to testify relative to the asserted order. Through their testimony the defense attempted to show that asserted bootleggers and others had been granted immunity in return for their appearance as witnesses against McClanahan, Wyle and Bradford, who are asserted to have accepted "protection" money from a number of bootleggers in the Central-avenue district.

Mayor Porter testified he instructed Chief Davis to remove Hoy from the so-called "black belt" of Central avenue after he had been informed by investigators that Hoy's activities there were interfering with the preparation of the case involving the three colored policemen.

Chief Davis testified briefly that he received Mayor Porter's instructions and had transferred Hoy from the vice squad to the robbery squad. He said Hoy had made a number of arrests in the Central-avenue district while working on the vice squad.

Bandit Killer Admitting
Two Prior Convictions
Faces Sentence Friday

Pleading guilty to murder and robbery and admitting two prior felony convictions, Thomas C. Fleming, 23 years of age, yesterday was ordered by Superior Judge Fricke, sitting for Superior Judge Aggeler, to be brought into court next Friday at 2 p.m. for sentencing.

Fleming was charged in a complaint issued by the office of the District Attorney with fatally shooting W. M. English, a druggist, November 2, last. English is asserted to have been shot while he pursued Fleming following the robbery of J. Altoon, proprietor of a grocery store, a few minutes before.

In attempting to escape Fleming was shot in the leg by a deputy sheriff and captured. For a time he was confined in the prison ward of General Hospital.

At the time of the offenses Fleming is asserted to have been on parole from Ione. The two prior felony convictions were cited as robbery, for which he was convicted February 2, 1927, and driving an automobile without the owner's consent March 4, 1927.

ANGELS OBTAIN CATCHER

Seraphs Get Schulte from Cubs in Exchange for Warren; Lelivelt, Reichow Due Back Today

BY BOB RAY

John Schulte, the Chicago Cub catcher who is built on the general lines of a football running guard, will be an Angel next spring. Such was the announcement made yesterday by the Los Angeles club, which stated that Schulte has been obtained from the Cubs in a trade that sent Dallas
Warren, young catching prospect, to the Windy City outfit.

Warren, while a good-looking young prospect, made a hit with Joe McCarthy last spring, but the Angels consider he is a bit shy on experience to be used regularly in Class A A company.

The Cubs are in a much better position than the Angels to farm Warren
out for development, so the trade figures to do the young
backstop a lot of good.

On the other hand, Schulte
is a veteran performer and can be used to assist Gus Sandberg in taking care of the Angel catching chores next year. Schulte is a left-hand hitter and, when he is used

U.S.C. FIVE WINS OVER MERCURIES

Frank Smith is Scoring
Star as Trojans Defeat
L.A.A.C., 35-31

With Frank Smith, lanky center, leading them on and finding the backups with such frequency that he piled up 17
points, Coach
Sam Barry's
Southern California Trojan
sagers last night
defeated the
strong L.A.A.C.
quintet, 35 to 31, in the Mercury gym.

Smith not only was high-point man of the evening, but he also started on a rally in
the second half
that enabled them to pile up a lead that was too much for the Mercury cagers to overcome in their spirited finish.

ENGLAND AND AMERICA AGREE ON BOXING PACT

CINCINNATI, Dec. 16. (AP) — The National Boxing Association today announced completion of a working agreement with the British Boxing Board of Control for mutual recognition of fines, suspensions, contracts between managers, contestants and promoters and regulation of world's championship titles.

Stanley M. Isaac, Cincinnati, and John W. Driskill, president and secretary, respectively, of the National Boxing Association and the Earl of Lonsdale and Col. R. F. Myddleton, president and chairman of the British Boxing Board of Control, negotiated the agreement.

Simultaneous with announcement of the working relation with the British board, Driskill said a recent ruling of the National Boxing Association has been reversed, and the former ranking of Al Brown as world's bantamweight champion was changed to the extent of declaring the world title open. Brown is recognized only as the American champion. Teddy Baldock of England was ranked as Brown's leading contender.

ALL-STAR EASTERN GRID TEAM BOUND FOR COAST

CHICAGO, Dec. 16. (AP) — The all-star eastern team, which meets a like squad of western stars in the annual New Year's day charity football game at San Francisco, went through a spirited workout at Dyche Stadium today and then en-trained for the Pacific Coast.

All twenty-two invited players responded for the workout and Coaches Andy Kerr of Colgate and Dick Haney of Northwestern drilled them for more than an hour. Several new plays were given the squad, which is composed of eastern and middle western players.

While no announcement was made of the starting line-up, the coaches placed these men in positions during most of today's practices.

Idaho Dropped From S.C. Line-up for Next Year; Washington Signs Seven League Opponents

BY RUSSELL J. NEWLAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 16. (AP) — In a session of spirited debate and many deadlocks, graduate managers of the Pacific Coast Conference met here today and picked a football schedule for 1930.

Most of the arguments centered around dates between the three big California colleges — Southern California, Stanford and California. Coach Howard Jones of Southern California attended a meeting determined that his Trojan seven would not again meet
Stanford and California on successive Saturdays as was the case this year. His contention was that he should have more time to prepare for the second encounter.
Jones carried his point, for Southern California will meet Stanford, October 25, and California, November 5.

Washington drew the heaviest schedule of conference games with seven listed. The Huskies will face their 1929 opposition
under the direction of a new coach,
Jimmy Phelan, who replaces
Enoch Ragshaw, resigned.
Phelan, who steered Puget to the Big Ten championship this year, will buck up against Montana, Idaho, Oregon and California on successive Satdays; Stanford and Washington
State on following week-ends.
Later in the season, and with a warm-up game after Washington State, will tackle Southern California.

TROJAN GAME UNAVAILING

Representatives of St. Mary's College, the little independent team that finished the season undefeated and with the best record in the Far West, were unable to schedule any additional games with conference cavalry today. The Salins received their usual place on California's schedule, an October 11 date, and already have a contest lined up with Oregon in San Francisco, Thanksgiving Day. An effort to schedule a game with Southern California was unavailing. Coach Jones of U.

fighting a courageous, uphill battle against his heavier foe, was beaten convincingly.

Trafton, former Notre Dame star center, had a weight advantage of forty pounds over the leucanthemum blond T. Jones.

Before a crowd of more than 5000 frenzied customers who paid in excess of $15,000, Shires and his giant foe fought through the same star center, had a weight advantage of forty pounds over the leucanthemum blond T. Jones.

As the fight started, Shires, a trim, tense athlete, flew into Trafton like a banister rooster. After a furious exchange of punches, Trafton picked his right eye for the door and sent it crashing against the tip of Shires's chin.

Shires, who was wearing a headband, was hit again, without taking a count. He proceeded to walk right back into the fire with the courage of a cub panther.

Shires threw a few punches to the head and then opened up with another ally of his own, that made Trafton retreat.

Just before the round ended Trafton showed Shires a left to the chin, which was a surprise to the crowd.

A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

THE SHEIK'S NEPHEW
 By Edgar Rice Burroughs

The Sheik's nephew and his accomplice were duly tried, convicted, and met their fate according to the laws of France. A month later, 7-year-old Jeanne Jacot mysteriously disappeared. Neither the wealth of her parents nor the powerful resources of the great republic her father served were able to wrest the secret of her whereabouts from the inscrutable desert that had swallowed the lovely little girl and her abductor.

WHAT YOU SAY, SIMPLY GOES IN ONE EAR AND OUT THE OTHER

THAT ONLY BEARS OUT WHAT GEORGE EMERY SAID - THAT SOUND CANNOT PASS THROUGH A VACUUM

CAN YOU BEAT THAT FOR DUMB? I'VE TOLD HER AND TOLD HER AND TOLD HER - THAT UNCLE BILLY ARRIVES FRIDAY - AND SHE INSISTS THAT IT'S SATURDAY - SHE WON'T LISTEN - I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO FOR THAT WOMAN

I CAN'T DO ANYTHING MORE - I'VE TAUGHT HER ALL I KNOW - AND STILL SHE DOESN'T KNOW ANYTHING

I ALWAYS GET A HEADACHE BEFORE CHRISTMAS, TRYING TO FIGURE OUT WHAT PRESENTS TO GIVE PEOPLE??

SAY - HAVE YOU THOUGHT ABOUT WHAT WE OUGHTA GET FOR TH' BOSS?

MY GOSH NO!! I ALMOST FORGOT MR. DIBBS!!

WELL, I SAW A SWELL WALLET AND IT ONLY COST ONE DOLLAR!!

IF WE GET THE BOSS A WALLET SCOTTY, WE'LL HAVE TO PUT A PENNY IN IT FOR LUCK, YOU KNOW!!

ALL RIGHT! I'M NO FIKER -

THE REST OF TH' OFFICE GANG CAN ALL CHIP IN AND BUY TH' WALLET AND I'LL PUT TH' PENNY IN IT!!

I'VE RUN EVERY SEA STORY EVER FILMED LOOKING FOR A LEADING MAN FOR THE PICTURE

AND NOT ONE OF THE ACTORS MEETS WITH MY IDEA OF THE TYPE OF HERO I WANT!

EVEN THE CASTING DIRECTORIES AREN'T ANY HELP IN THIS CASE! I'VE GLANCED AT A THOUSAND PAGES AND GOT A THOUSAND BLANK STARES FOR MY TROUBLE!

I WANT A HERO FOR MY PICTURE WITH THE FACE OF A SAINT, THE COURAGE OF A DRAGON, AND A HEART BIG ENOUGH TO HOLD LIFE'S TWO GREATEST EMOTIONS - LOVE AND HATE! BUT WHERE CAN I FIND HIM?

BANDITS' WEEK
STARTS IN EARLYThree Men Invade Saunders
Store and Get $1858Pair Take Money, Firearms and AutomobileCaptured Car Demonstrator
Shield of Robbers

Bandits started to work yesterday with the opening hour of business, robbing a chain store of its week-end receipts, while in another robbery the criminals outfitted themselves with a get-away car and guns, as well as taking cash.

Three armed men in an expensive sedan drove up to the Clarence Saunders store at 7281 Melrose avenue yesterday, just as Manager R. W. Howard and five clerks were counting up. At gun points the robbers forced the store staff to lie on the floor, threatening to shoot if they disobeyed. The bandits then took $1800 from the cash register and $58 from the employees' pockets and drove off.

Two well-dressed young men yesterday requested a car for demonstration from the Robinson Auto Rental Service at 3728 South Vermont avenue. Myron Matuse, an employee, took the pair out in the car selected for demonstration. After he had driven a few blocks a revolver was jabbed into his back by one passenger, while the other took the wheel.

The bandits drove to the Duval sporting goods store at 4349 South Vermont avenue, where they drew their revolvers and marched Matuse in ahead of them, using him as a shield. Their weapons covered four men in the store, who were forced to lie down and be tied. These were Walter Hartwell and R. E. Bear, clerks, and Howard Parker and L. L. Meyers, customers. The bandits stole all the money in the unlocked safe, several hundred dollars, and then took two rifles and a shotgun.

"We've got plenty of ammunition," they announced, after loading the rifles and shotgun. Thus armed, they drove off in the stolen automobile.

COURTROOM DOUBLES AS
FILM HALLMotion Picture Shown to Prove Misrepresentation
in Theft Trial

Judge, jury and court attaches yesterday viewed a motion-picture production in Superior Judge Wood's courtroom as part of the prosecution procedure in the case of John W. Hamilton, so-called psychology professor and lecturer, who is on trial on four counts of grand theft, charging him with defrauding three women out of more than $45,000 in connection with a real estate promotion in the town of Ripley.

The motion picture, which was said to have been represented by Hamilton as showing scenes in and around Ripley, was projected on the wall of the courtroom after shades had been drawn across the windows. After showing the picture, the state called Richard P. Young, who testified most of the scenes in the picture had been made in Hollywood and in Antelope Valley. Ripley is in Coachella Valley.

It is charged Hamilton sold lots to Ripley and then failed to deliver titles to his customer. The trial will continue today.

Hollywood Raid
Nets Huge Liquor
Haul and Woman

Christmas champagne and whisky, intended for Hollywood thrills, was seized last night, together with a woman who was accused by the Hollywood vice squad of starting suit to deliver a car lot. The officers estimated the value of the champagne, Scotch and Bourbon whisky and wine seized at $10,000.

Sergeant Stewart and Officers Pilkington and Brown of the Hollywood vice squad made the arrest and seizure at 318 North Kingsley Drive, where they reported finding the contraband in a bungalow and its garage. They arrested Jane Wilson, 42 years of age, on the present charge, reporting that she had an auto load ready to take out. She was booked on charges of Wright Act possession and transportation. The liquor was taken to the Hollywood police station and Jane Wilson was taken to jail.

Wilshire Plans
Talk Subject

Improvement plans for the Wilshire district were under discussion last night at the meeting of the Western Avenue Chamber of Commerce with the announcement that a survey report of the projects inspired by the civic body would be given at the annual banquet scheduled for the first part of February.

An election of officers held at the meeting resulted in the following appointments: C. C. Smith, president; H. S. Hargrave, first vice-president; A. P. C. De Frank, second vice-president; A. A. Wood, treasurer, and H. A. Henry, executive secretary.

TWO WOMEN HELD ON CHECK CHARGES

Bad checks and good prizes figured in accusations against Mrs. Frances Oppelme and Ruth Hogue, both of 1841 South Union avenue, who were booked last night on suspicion of grand theft. Detective Lieutenants Sherrard and Miller of the Georgia-street division, reported that the women obtained large orders of prizes from grocery stores, paying for the staple with checks which snapped back. The prizes were sold by the women for real money to retailers, the detectives charge.

Wilde Stricken
by War Wound

A wound he received during the World War yesterday caused the collapse of Ted Wilde, film director, on a set at the Metropolitan studio. With but two more hours of work remaining on the picture, Wilde was directing for the Edward Small unit. Wilde collapsed. He was removed to his home.

Wilde, who gained prominence through his direction of Harold Lloyd, suffered a shrapnel wound during the war. It was declared at the studio his illness is in the form of paralysis. While his condition is serious, he is not believed in immediate danger.

Citizens Urge
High School in West Section

Citizen delegations last night addressed the Board of Education at its meeting, three spokesmen urging the selection of any one of three sites on West Adams street and in the Monier Lane district. The speakers were E. J. Morgan, chairman of the high-school district committee, John O. King, president of the Culver City Chamber of Commerce, and Morton MacCormac, secretary of the same body. They emphasized that such selection would serve 1250 pupils of junior and senior high-school age living in that district, which has a population of 35,000. William M. Edmonds spoke for the advocates of a site on Robertson Boulevard.

Here is the voice that rang across famous footlights in history-making hits—the one voice that millions have wanted most to hear—brought to you at last by Vitaphone.

Other talking screen debuts have been but preparation for this one event. For Warner Bros. waited until Vitaphone was fully perfected, before entrusting to it the voice of the greatest scion of America's greatest acting family.

John Barrymore himself says—"I can really 'be myself' on the Vitaphone. With the restraint of silence removed, it is possible to get infinitely more powerful dramatic effects. It's like being on the stage again."

Let Vitaphone put you "on speaking terms" with this famous fighting lover you've only half-known on the silent screen.

Come to "General Crack." Sit for the first time in the living presence of a flaming, surging personality that will lift you to unguessed heights of emotion as he storms recklessly into the vortex of cyclonic romance and adventure, breaking heads and hearts and sweeping monarchs from their thrones to suit a gypsy whim.

Brazilians Flock to Scene
After Aviators Crawl
from Ruined Ship

RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 17. (AP)—Two men, who had flown from Sevilla, Spain, in thirty-six hours without a stop, today emerged from the tropical forests of Brazil to reassure an anxious world as to their safety.

Mel Tadeo Larre Borges, who had hoped to reach Montevideo, capital of his native land of Uruguay, was the first to reach a village contacted by telegraph with the outcome of his journey. He gave assurance that, although he and his companion, Lieut. Leon Challe, French aviator, were stunned by the crash of their plane in a forested landing last night, neither is injured seriously.

He told how, after successfully negotiating more than half of their projected route, including the whole of the hazardous over-water route, they had reached South America, down in darkness and were unable to orient themselves. Failing to pick up even the lights of towns that might guide them to a haven, the plane circled inland and, weary from the strain and with dwindling fuel supply, picked the first clearing to bring their Breguet sesquiplane to earth.

PLANE OVERTURNED
The ground was soft and the plane overturned and smashed. The major crawled out and released his companion. A short time later the wreckage reached them and guided Larre-Borges to the little town of Santa Antonio Do Sul, near the southwestern coast of Brazil. As soon as word of their plight was received physicians and officials hurried to the spot.

Santa Antonio is remote and inaccessible and it was some time before a coherent account of the landing could be obtained. Lieut. Challe was reported to be cut over the eyes and severely bruised.

Mel Larre-Borges, who went to Santa Antonio for aid after the crash, had been lured by a party of men, said that he and his companion had struggled against headwinds most of the way across the South Atlantic.

They gave up their attempt to reach Montevideo after a flight of more than thirty-six hours from Sevilla, which they left at 12:40 a.m. Sunday (4:40 a.m. P.B.T.) and after covering 3000 miles.

LANDING DESCRIBED
"The first few hours of the flight the winds were favorable," Mel Larre-Borges explained. "But after passing Cape Verde on the African coast, we ran into headwinds so unfavorable that about 4 o'clock in the afternoon we decided to land."
